1. The 70th Annual Fredericton Music Festival Apr 17-27

The 70th Annual Fredericton Music Festival is set to begin on Monday, April 17 and will continue until Thursday, April 27. The Festival Committee and its large team of volunteers have worked hard throughout the past year to organise this true community event. Once again, residents of the capital region will have an opportunity to hear the musical talents from within their own community, with more than 1,000 solo entries and groups performing.

Highly qualified professionals have been selected from Atlantic Canada and beyond to adjudicate the wide variety of classes which include piano, strings, brass, voice, woodwinds, musical theatre, bands, choirs and much more. The Festival provides a wonderful experience for all participants from the youngest beginners to the top senior performers, some of whom may continue to represent the community in the Provincial competition.

Festival programs are available at Tony's Music Box, and at all venues during Festival for $10. The cost of an adult ticket is $2 per session and students are free. Festival Passes are $20 and available at all venues during the festival. The Junior and Senior Awards Concerts will take place at 7pm on May 10 and 11 at the Journey Wesleyan Church. Entry fees are $5 for adults and students are free.

If you would like further information, please visit the website at www.frederictonmusicfestival.org or call 476-4678. Back to top.

2. Music Runs through It presents Norma MacDonald Apr 20

Music Runs Through It presents Norma MacDonald at Corked Wine Bar on Thursday, April 20 at 8pm. Tickets are $15, and are available at Corked Wine Bar and Tony's Music Box. Join us for a night of live music in this wonderfully intimate, up-close, and personal setting in Fredericton's beautiful downtown!

Norma MacDonald epitomizes the 'folk-roots' genre. Managing to seamlessly meld her innate old-school country sensibilities with her contemporary influences (Wilco, Patty Griffin, Springsteen), the resulting output is grounded, authentic and lyrically sophisticated. She has a voice of gold and is a natural, musical storyteller.

Norma MacDonald was born and raised in Cape Breton, now living in Halifax, NS. She likes Gram Parsons records, talking to strangers, potato chips, David Lynch movies, and swimming in the ocean.

Upcoming shows at Corked Wine Bar:

- Matthew Byrne - Thursday, May 4
- Alfie Zappacosta - Thursday, May 11
- Ian Foster - Thursday, June 1
- Garrett Mason - Thursday, July 13
- Christina Martin - Thursday, August 3
- Suzie Vinnick - Wednesday, August 16 & Thursday, August 17

3. Roller Derby Saved My Soul (Apr 21) at the Playhouse

The hit one-woman Fringe play, Roller Derby Saved My Soul, is coming to the Fredericton Playhouse on Friday, April 21 at 7:30p.m. Since premiering at the Ottawa Fringe Festival in 2011, Roller Derby Saved My Soul has charmed critics and audiences all over the world. Roller derby and superheroes collide in this delightful comedy, described by CBC as "perfect escapism and purely satisfying entertainment."

With a mixture of heart-warming honesty and snappy observations, the play follows two sisters who try to navigate the tough competitive world of roller derby and finally learn to unleash the hero within. Written by and starring New Brunswick's own Nancy Kenny, this one-woman show is fun, uplifting and original.

The Playhouse will also host a free Experience More! Pre-Show Derby Demo on April 21 at 7pm. Members of the Capital City Rollers will present a brief demonstration of their roller derby skills and techniques on stage, right before Roller Derby Saved My Soul begins. Tickets for Roller Derby Saved My Soul are available through the Fredericton Playhouse box office by calling 458-8344 or online at www.theplayhouse.ca. Back to top.

4. The Greatest Match in History Tour at the Capital Complex Apr 21

This spring, Torero unites with The Hypochondriacs for an East Coast Showdown. Come and witness the greatest match in history on April 21 at The Capital as part of Flourish Festival 2017.

Torero: If you can't decide between twang or grit, country or jangly pop/rock, no problem. There's Torero. Fronted by sultry, assured, soulful Pretenders fan Eleanor Bull, Torero just may be local alt-country's answer to Alvvays. They released their Lincoln County Social Club-recorded debut mid-2015 and are at work on a follow-up. <http://toreroband.com/>

The Hypochondriacs: Hailing from Fredericton, NB, this four piece powerhouse is taking Eastern Canada by storm with their high octane live show; prolific heartfelt ballads, and superb musicianship. A much needed whiskey shot in the arm for a new generation raised on Corporate radio and Walmart Country.

Lead by the two brother's Josh Bravener (singer songwriter/guitar) and Aaron Bravener (drums/vocals); along with the stunning Justine Koroscil (vocals/percussion) and seasoned bass player Jamie Guitar, the HYPOCHONDRIACS have resurrected from the traditional country crypt a fresh and raw take to the standard genre. Though profoundly influenced by the likes of George Jones, Hank Williams and Johnny Cash through further inspection one will hear early Memphis rockabilly all the way up to the '80s cowpunk movement.... Brace for Impact! <https://thehypochondriacs.com/> Back to top.

5. Figures Group Exhibition Opens at Gallery 78 Apr 21

Figure painting and drawing has played a prominent role in art since the beginning of time. Explore the myriad ways in which the human figure is presented and interpreted in Gallery 78's new Figures exhibition.

And take a moment to appreciate the Small Wonders of life. Several of our artists love to work in miniature format and delight us with their treasures. Delve into the nostalgia of yesteryear - and bring your children! They'll love sharing your memories with you!

You and your friends and family are cordially invited to join us for the reception on Friday, April 21, 5-7pm and to visit on-line and in person until Sunday, May 14, 2017.

6. Saints & Sinners Burlesque 90s Revival Apr 21 & 22

Saints & Sinners Burlesque presents their spring show: 90s Revival, April 21 and 22 at 8pm in the Black Box Theatre. It is a wonderful flashback to all of your favourite hits from 1990 to 1999. With tons of songs to sing along to and a group of super sexy dancers, we have something for everyone.

Tickets available at the door: $15 general and $10 students. Must be 18+ to attend. Back to top.

7. Figures and Small Wonders Exhibitions at Gallery 78 Apr 21 – May 5

Figure painting and drawing has played a prominent role in art since the beginning of time and across cultures. Through all the fashions and changes in the history of art, the artistic fascination with the body, its features and tones of skin in varying light has remained a constant. Explore the myriad ways in which the human figure is presented and interpreted in Gallery 78's upcoming exhibition Figure.

Small works of art invite us to step a little closer, peer more carefully, discover the minutia, and contemplate the tiny. Lori Doody, Jessie Babin, Tessa May, Cathy Ross all delight us with their upcoming Small Wonders.

These two exhibitions will run April 21 – May 5 at Gallery 78, located at 796 Queen Street (corner of Church and Queen).

Open: Tuesday to Friday 10am-5pm, Saturday 10am-3pm, and Sunday 1-4pm or visit virtually at: www.gallery78.com. Back to top.

8. Art Battle Fredericton Apr 22

Join us on Saturday, April 22 at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre at 8pm! Don't miss two live painting tournaments, showcasing local artists and connecting the Maritimes to towns and cities around the world! Come and be part of the fun as a spectator, or participate as one of the featured artists, this is the 5th season for Art Battle in New Brunswick, winners will advance to the Provincial Final with a chance to paint in the Canadian Championships this summer.

10. House Concert & CD Launch: Mike Biggar with Grant Heckman and the Go All In Tour Apr 22

What is more fun than a CD Launch? A launch with Mike Biggar is a bigger-than-life experience! Mike's performances are solid music mixed with humour and energy. Consider the titles of some of the songs on his latest CD, Go ALL IN! Mike will answer the following universal questions among others: If you "Go All In", what happens? Love and Insanity - do they really go together? Can you really get blood from a stone? If someone says, "I just see you" don't you think they need a reality check? Finally, what about "Hell and High Water"? What does this say about the after-life? We can't wait for the answers!

And if that were not enough, Mike will be accompanied by his long-time musical partner, Grant Heckman. Grant is a singer-songwriter and producer in his own right. His music is a mix of pop, gospel, reggae, atmospheric folk and ballads and is just awesome! He is also a very fine guitarist and long-time friend of Mike's.

This concert takes place on Saturday, April 22 at 8pm (doors open at 7:15pm) at 41 River Front Way. The artist's fee is $20 per person (payable at the door in cash or by cheque). For more information or to reserve a seat, contact pmm56@me.com or phone 457-0826. Back to top.

11. The Fous de la Scène presents La course au vison at Centre Communautaire Sainte-Anne Apr 22 & 29

The Fous de la scène, Fredericton's French community theater company, is proud to present its new production, the comedy La course au vison (the French version of Not Now, Darling, written by Ray Cooney and John Chapman).

In 1967, in a Montreal fur salon, Alfred Desgroseilliers, one of the two owners, has difficulty keeping everything going afloat, while his partner, Jacques Radisson, is off philandering. Radisson decides to sell his new mistress' husband a fur coat for an extremely low price in order to win her affection, and Desgroseilliers is stuck presiding over the deal. The husband decides to give the coat to his own mistress, and all hell breaks out.

La course au vison will take place Saturday, April 22 and 29 at 7:30pm in the Bernard-Poirier Theater of the Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne (CCSA). Tickets are sold at the front desk of the CCSA, at ccsa.yapsody.com, and at the door: $15 adults and $10 students. For more information call 453-2731 or info@centre-sainte-anne.nb.ca. 12. odd sundays at Corked Wine Bar presents Laura Noble and Katherine Ouellette Apr 23

We have come to the last odd sundays of this season. What a successful time it has been. On behalf of Kathy Mac, Sherry Coffey (and Ian LeTourneau who helps in the background), I want to say thank you all for being such faithful supporters. Your attention to our series of readings has been what we needed to see our work flourish. Thank you all so much. Please be with us for this last time before we enjoy a wonderful summer. Come to Corked Wine Bar at 83 Regent Street at 2pm on Sunday, April 23. The usual things apply: greet Charlotte and all your friends, get a book draw ticket, add your name to the open mic set, and enjoy our featured guests.

Laura Noble and Katherine Ouellette will be reading for us. Their appearance at odd sundays is partial fulfilment of the requirements for their Honours Thesis in Creative Writing course at St. Thomas University. Since their proposed novel projects were approved by STU's English Department in May 2016, they've been researching, plotting, writing and rewriting under the beady, supervisory eye of Kathy Mac (aka Dr. Kathleen McConnell).

Laura is a St. Thomas post-grad student who is completing her concentration in Creative Writing. Laura has spoken at the Annual Atlantic Undergrad English Conference both academically and creatively. She works in the New Brunswick public school system, organizing events based on raising awareness of the importance of writing and public speaking.

Katherine is a fourth year student at STU, who will graduate this spring. She aspires to attain a Master's Degree in Creative Writing and publish more work in the future. Katherine's manuscript, Refraction, follows the main character Samuel throughout his life, focusing on his relationship with his older brother Marcus. Told in a non-linear fashion through Samuel's memories from childhood to adulthood, Refraction showcases both the comfort of family as well the many hardships that the brothers' bond must endure.

14. The Fredericton-Cares Online Concert with Sherman Downey Apr 23

Last week, well known Newfoundland artist, Sherman Downey, played a show in Fredericton as part of with the Music Runs Through It Series at Corked Wine bar. It was a great evening! Sadly, both of Sherman's guitars were stolen from his car after the show. The theft was well publicized and many of you wanted to help Sherman replace the tools of his trade, but he has been adamant that he doesn't want donations and remains hopeful the guitars will find their way home.

Sherman has decided to perform the sets from his recent tour on Facebook Live on Sunday April 23 at 7:30pm. This Online Concert will be free, but when the show begins, the Music Runs Through It team (Emma Chevarie) here in Fredericton will kick off a Pre-Sale Order Campaign for Sherman's next recording to coincide with Sherman's show.

For every Pre-Sale Purchase made during the show, Sherman will personally mail an advanced copy of his new album once it is finalized. The Campaign will also provide him the means to thank each and every one of you who wants to help at this time. We get the satisfaction of knowing that the revenue raised will help replace his guitars while at the same time contribute to the recording process for his upcoming album.

Mark your calendar and tune into Sherman's Facebook Music Page (<https://www.facebook.com/ShermanDowneyMusic>) on Sunday, April 23 at 7:30pm to enjoy the show! A link will be provided during the performance if you're inclined to help by pre-ordering the new album. The Pre-Sale Album cost is completely up to you!

The Facebook Live Performance will run approximately 2 hours and Sherman hopes you will settle in with a friend and a cup of tea to watch the last show of his solo tour. Please participate and show Sherman that Fredericton cares! Back to top.

16. Monday Night Film Series presents The Sense of an Ending (Apr 24) & LA LA Land (May 1)

The Sense of an Ending

April 24, 2017 - 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Ritesh Batra

UK, 2017

English

108 minutes

With: Jim Broadbent, Charlotte Rampling, Harriet Walter, Emily Mortimer, Michelle Dockery

The Sense of an Ending is based on the 2011 Man Booker Prize-winning novel by Julian Barnes and directed by Ritesh Batra (The Lunchbox). Tony Webster (Jim Broadbent), divorced and retired, leads a reclusive and relatively quiet life. One day, he learns that the mother of his university girlfriend, Veronica (Charlotte Rampling), left in her will a diary kept by his best friend who dated Veronica after she and Tony parted ways.

Tony's quest to recover the diary, now in Veronica's possession, forces him to revisit his flawed recollections of his friends and of his younger self. As he digs deeper into his past, it all starts to come back; the first love, the broken heart, the deceit, the regrets, the guilt... Can Tony bear to face the truth and take responsibility for the devastating consequences of actions he took so long ago?

LA LA Land

May 1, 2017, 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Director: Damien Chazelle

USA, 2016

English

128 minutes

Principal cast: Ryan Gosling, Emma Stone, John Legend and Rosemarie DeWitt

Set in modern day Los Angeles, this modern take on the Hollywood musical comes from Damien Chazelle, the Academy Award-nominated writer and director of Whiplash. LA LA Land tells the story of Mia (Emma Stone), an aspiring actress, who serves lattes to movie stars as a barista at a local coffee shop, and Sebastian (Ryan Gosling), a dedicated jazz musician, who plays dingy bars in order to scrape by. Both characters are struggling to make ends meet in a city known for crushing hopes and breaking hearts in a film about everyday life that explores the joy and pain of pursuing your dreams. The two meet and fall in love, but, as success mounts, the dreams they worked so hard to maintain threaten to tear them apart.

All of Chazelle's key collaborators were clearly in total sync with the project's aims. Composer Justin Hurwitz, who worked on both the director's previous films, has delivered an LP's worth of buoyant, charming tunes, mostly in a jazzy vein, with Benj Pasek and Justin Paul supplying the lyrics. Production designer David Wasco and costume designer Mary Zophres adroitly supplied touches of the old and new in an elegant way, while choreographer Mandy Moore similarly danced a stylistic tightrope that greatly helped Chazelle achieve his aim of delivering a welcome gift of vintage goods in a dazzling new package.

This year, 30 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $7/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $4/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>. 28. Shrek: The Musical at The Playhouse May 4-6

Theatre New Brunswick concludes its 2016-2017 season with a production of the award-winning comedic hit, Shrek: The Musical, on stage at the Fredericton Playhouse, May 4-6, 2017.

The Senior Musical Theatre (SMT) program at TNB Theatre School is made up of students, grades 9-12, the most advanced and accomplished performers from TNB Theatre School's 300+ students. Many of them have been with the theatre school since entering the public school system.

Each Senior Musical Theatre production marks the end of Theatre New Brunswick's season and continues to be one of the most popular productions of the whole year. For this production, students are given the company's full support as a way of providing the most professional theatre experience for both the audience and the performers. This year's students will be supported by professional lighting, projection, set and wardrobe designers in addition to a full orchestra.

This production is made possible through the support of Downtown Fredericton and Stantec.

Shrek: The Musical runs May 4-6, 2017 at The Fredericton Playhouse at 7:30pm nightly, with a Saturday matinee at 2pm. Tickets are available at the Fredericton Playhouse box office or online at tnb.nb.ca, and are $27 for adults, and $15 for students. Back to top.

3. Body Word Bank Contemporary Dance Workshop with Lesandra Dodson

On Saturday, April 22 from 12 to 1:30pm Lesandra Dodson will present the Body Word Bank Contemporary Dance Workshop at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre. The cost is $10.

This workshop will provide physical exploration through a series of movement exercises, text, improvisation and creative movement development. It will start with a technical series of short simplistic exercises that are designed to focus on specific body articulation – with a goal of creating responsive, energizing movement reaction, and alignment awareness. These exercises will also focus the participant on detailed movement dynamics and rhythm changes. The second part of the workshop is designed to explore choreographic creation and movement invention. It will investigate different ways to use text to build and create movement sequences. There will be focus on breath, sound, and the effect it has upon movement invention.

Originally from Vancouver, Lesandra Dodson's training and professional work, as a dancer, choreographer, director, and producer have taken her across the country; living in Winnipeg, Ottawa, Toronto, and Fredericton. She is Co-Artistic Director of a new physical theatre company, the coop, a dance educator at Saint Thomas University and continues to be an avid collaborator/creator on independent dance projects.

This workshop is for ages 12 and up. Some dance / movement experience is necessary. To register contact connetiondanceworks@gmail.com. Back to top.

4. Advanced Beginner Course in Traditional Rug Hooking Apr 24

Spring is here. Make a fresh start and learn something new. The Heritage Rug Hooking Guild is hosting a 4 week Advanced Beginner Course in Traditional Rug Hooking. This is geared to the person who has tried rug hooking on their own, is returning to the craft or who has had a short basic course before. Students will learn how to use a variety of wool fabrics and yarns, do some shading and pictorials, as well as incorporating a variety of different stitches in order to create different looks in the hooked product.

5. NBCCD Textiles Workshops

Are you practicing knitting, weaving, or surface printing as a hobby? Are you a textile artist who would like to specialize in a fibre arts discipline or learn how to incorporate digital technology into your practice? Join us at the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design (NBCCD) for a Textile Workshop Weekend – an introduction to a 2-year Diploma in Textile Design on April 29 -30 from 9am - 4pm.

Registration is free, and there is a $30 fee for materials. Register by contacting Mandy.gallant@gnb.ca or calling 506-453-2566. Choose from 2 exciting workshops:

Workshop 1: Paint it, Print it, Weave it

In this exciting workshop you will learn the basics techniques of silk painting, silkscreen printing and weaving. Have fun creating your own colorful designs on paper and silk using industry-standard dyes and inks. Create your own cloth as you weave on a professional loom, creating your very own scarf.

Workshop 2: Dye it, Felt it, Knit it

Discover the joy of coloring your own yarn and knitting this on one of our amazing knitting machines. (Hand knitters – you really should try this one!) Create cloth from fibre as you learn to make felt scarf and create fabulous color with both industry-standard and natural dyes.

Each workshop takes place over two days and space is limited to 12 participants in each. Sign up today, and experience what could be like if you pursued a Diploma in Textiles Design! NBCCD's 2- year Diploma in Textile Design is accepting full- and part-time applicants for the August 2017 academic year. This program qualifies for the Tuition Access Bursary (TAB) and Tuition Relief for the Middle Class (TRMC) student loan funding programs.

7. Fredericton Region Museum Summer Day Camps! Jul 10 - Aug 11

The Fredericton Region Museum operates six different weeks of summer day camps offering children 8 to 11 years of age an opportunity to directly explore some of Fredericton's history and discover links to the City's past. Our camps have a maximum of 10 campers each week, allowing the children to fully participate and enjoy the week in their own way while also exploring and learning about our past in a fun and inclusive manner. Children take daily trips to nearby sites and visit heritage gems that make Fredericton a wonderful place to live. With lots of time for creativity, campers play traditional and contemporary games, construct crafts, explore our heritage, make lasting friendships, and learn about our past in a very unique way!

Dates and Themes:

- July 3 – 7: A “March Pass” Through History
Focusing on how war affected Canada and the important role that men and women played in our military history, this week will be filled with games and activities that relate to The War of 1812, the Revolutionary War, and The First and Second World War. Canada's modern role in maintaining peace will also be explored. March through history with us as we learn through guest speakers, games, activities, and outings.
- July 10 – 14: The History of Fun: Playing Around with Heritage
What did people do for fun? What games did they play? What did they create? Learn about the history of arts, crafts, and recreation through fun, hands-on activities. Activities will include visits to historical and cultural sites (such as art galleries and museums), special guests, and historically significant games and crafts. Join us and learn about toys and games from the past while you play with them!

- July 17 – 21: Technology and Communication in Our Past
Calling all communicators! This week focuses on the history and evolution of communications and technologies that past generations used and enjoyed! Campers will participate with and learn about different types of technology and communication technologies from our past through crafts, field trips, and games while also having lots of fun!
- July 24 – 28: Behind the Scenes of Fredericton Heritage
Campers will explore behind the scenes areas of several of Fredericton's Heritage centers and find links to the city's past. Children will take daily trips to nearby locations and visit heritage gems that make Fredericton a wonderful place to live. With lots of time for creativity, campers will play traditional and contemporary games, construct crafts, explore the secrets of heritage buildings, and make new friends.
- July 31 – August 4: Historical Foundations: Fredericton's Architecture from the Ground Up!
This week is all about the history of architecture. Learn about Fredericton's historic buildings with crafts, games, and field trips! Architecture can tell us a lot about what life was like in a different time, as well as what a building was used for. Join us as we unlock the mysteries of our local historic buildings!
- August 8 – 11 (4 Day Camp): Fredericton's Past to Present
Let's discover history, starting with Fredericton! Fredericton has many historic buildings that help tell the story of the city, which used to be very different than it is now! Once called Saint Anne's Point, Fredericton has lots of reminders of its past. Join us as we see what life was like for Loyalists, First Nation Peoples, Acadians, and for the people of historic Marysville! Activities will include historic games and crafts, as well as trips to historic sites.

Rates:

- 5 Day Camps: Members $130 / Non-Members $140
- 4 Day Camp: Members $105 / Non-Members $115
- Camp fee includes a museum t-shirt, all materials, and activities
- Meals and snacks are not included
- All camps run from 8:30am to 5pm

Spaces are open! To register, please visit our website at: <https://frederictonregionmuseum.wordpress.com/programs/summer-day-camps/>. For more information, please call us at: (506) 455-6041, or email us at: frederictonregionmuseum@gmail.com. Back to top.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Submissions: Art in Schools Canada 150 Projects

This fall, the Fredericton Arts Alliance will sponsor five art-related projects in area schools focused in some way on Canada 150. Teachers and artists: put your imaginations to work. Artists will receive a $500 honorarium and are expected to spend about 25 hours in the school working with students and teachers. The program will cover materials up to approximately $500. All media are encouraged – painting, film, sculpture, music, dance, writing, electronic media, photography, internet-based. Be creative.

Under the terms of the grant from Canada 150, approved projects must reflect, in some way, on Canada's 150th birthday as a nation. This allows huge flexibility. To start you thinking:

- Design Confederation era costumes;
- Video dances of 1867;
- Reflect on Confederation as a blip in the much longer aboriginal history of the geography we now call Canada;
- Build something using the tools of 1867;
- Study the music of the day and perform it for the school;
- Paint a mural showing 150 years of changes in the school community;
- Learn the games children played in 1867 and make them into video games;
- Document the last 150 years of your school's physical site;
- Look at how artists have portrayed Canada over 150 years.
- Create a drama of Champlain, scurvy, St. Croix Island and the Order of Good Cheer. Film it!
- Start with Bliss Carman's poetry and paint his visual images.
- What works for you? Your school? Your students? Your artistic impulses?

Students in five schools will be able to delve into some facet of 150 years of Canada, in a way appropriate to their age and the skills and interests of the artists and teachers who apply. Participating projects must provide at least one photo of their project and at least one success story at the end of the program.

An independent jury will choose the five successful proposals. Projects will run in the fall of 2017 and must be completed by January 31. The formal application documents are available on the FAA website, www.frederictonartsalliance.ca.

The application deadline is June 1, 2017. Projects will be selected in June to allow a September start.

For more information contact Katie FitzRandolph at president@artsalliance.ca or (506) 443-9900 or Allen Bentley albent@rogers.com.

2. Auditions for Bard in the Barracks: The Comedy of Errors and Richard III Apr 21 & 23

Open auditions will be held for the Bard in the Barracks productions of William Shakespeare's The Comedy of Errors and Richard III on April 21 and 23 at Memorial Hall on the UNB campus. The plays will be performed outdoors (in Barracks Square and Odell Park respectively) and will collectively run from June 22-July 9. (While exact performance dates for each play are still to be determined, The Comedy of Errors is likely to conclude by July 3.) The plays will be directed by Len Falkenstein, and will be rehearsed intensively (mainly evening hours) beginning the week of April 23.

Roles are available for actors of a variety of ages. Auditions will take place from 7-9:30pm on Friday, April 21 and from 1:30-4pm on Sunday, April 23, with callbacks from 6:30-8:30pm on Monday, April 24. Those auditioning are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the plays beforehand. Auditions will consist of readings from the plays. Prepared monologues may also be performed, but are not required.

To book an audition, please email lfalken@unb.ca, indicating your availability for the audition dates and any preference for date/time. Actors may be cast in one or both plays (if willing) at the discretion of the director, but may indicate a preference of play (if any) when booking their audition.

Anyone interested in auditioning who is unable to attend either of the audition dates, or anyone requesting further information, should contact the director at lfalken@unb.ca or 506 458-7406. Expressions of interest from persons who would like to assist with the productions in a musical or technical/crew capacity are also welcome.

3. Notable Acts Annual Province-Wide Playwriting Contest Launched

The Notable Acts Theatre Company is once again searching for great plays by New Brunswick writers for its annual province-wide Playwriting Competition. Notable Acts is celebrating its sixteenth anniversary in 2017. In that time, the company has presented 199 new plays by 90 different New Brunswick playwrights at its annual summer theatre festival.

If you'd like to add to those numbers and be part of this year's line-up, Notable Acts invites submissions in five separate categories. The Site-Specific series seeks three 15-30 minute scripts, to be set in unconventional public locations in Fredericton. Our Taking it to the Street contest seeks 7-10 minute scripts for production outdoors in downtown Fredericton, with four winners selected. The third category, Acting Out, is for submissions of one-act plays 30-60 minutes in length. The winning scripts and runners up in this category will be showcased during the festival either as work shopped productions or staged readings.

In addition to having their work produced at the festival, set to run July 26-August 5 in Fredericton, all winning playwrights will receive script mentoring from a professional playwright and cash prizes of $150 for the Site-Specific series and $125 for Taking it to the Street. Winners of Acting Out will receive a $300 prize.

The contest also includes two additional categories for scripts written by New Brunswick Middle School and High School students, with the winners receiving cash prizes, professional mentoring, and public readings of their scripts at the festival.

Writers interested in entering the contest should consult the full contest rules and guidelines at www.nbacts.com. Questions can be posed to Artistic Director, Len Falkenstein, at lfalken@unb.ca, or (506) 458-7406. The deadline for entries is April 23, 2017. Back to top.

4. Call for Nominations: The Playhouse Honours 2017

The Fredericton Playhouse is asking the public for nominations for The Playhouse Honours 2017.

Since 2008, the Fredericton Playhouse board of directors has awarded The Playhouse Honours annually. The recognition honours individuals' involvement in the performing arts in Fredericton, fostering a deeper appreciation of the value that people can make to community life through their work in music, theatre, dance, spoken word, and multidisciplinary performing arts. A permanent display in the west gallery of the Playhouse recognizes the honourees.

Nominations can be made by any person or organization. Underscoring the personal investment that they have made in the community, recipients must be individuals, not companies or organizations. Recipients may be a professional or amateur artist, administrator, volunteer, educator, philanthropist, advocate, organizer, etc. A selection committee (jury) comprised of members of the local arts community will review the submissions and recommend an honouree to the Fredericton Playhouse board of directors.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, April 28, 2017.

To nominate a candidate for The Playhouse Honours award, please fill in the following information and complete a written submission of no more than two (2) pages describing the reasons you feel that your nominee should be considered for The Playhouse Honours. An emphasis should be placed on the accumulated contributions of individuals over a period of time and consideration should be given to the local legacy and impact of the nominee on community life and the performing arts.

5. Submissions Open for Creative Connections Conference

Creativity is leading the wave of innovation and change globally. Opportunities to share knowledge and strategies about the interdisciplinary and problem-solving potential of creativity are now critical in meeting the social, cultural and economic needs of today's world.

This conference will be interactive and multidimensional; offering a variety of sessions designed to capture the imagination, inspire and engage participants through creative processes and problem solving. Participants will gain a greater understanding of creativity, its impact on our lives and how it can be used to address and solve real-life problems.

The guiding principles of the conference relate to the mission of the Atlantic Centre for Creativity. This interdisciplinary centre brings together disparate groups to explore how collaborative critical and creative engagement can be used to problem-solve, raise important dialogue, strengthen creative economies, and invigorate communities.

The organizers are seeking submissions that are interdisciplinary, multimodal and interactive in nature. Creating combinations of the following areas such as:

- Visual Art
- Sciences
- History
- Computer Science
- Engineering
- Creative Writing
